

2019 FSACOFPP Resident Teacher Award

The FSACOFPP Board of Trustees is pleased to announce that the application period for the 2019 FSACOFPP Resident Teacher Award is now open and will conclude on June 20, 2019.

Criteria:

1. The award will be given to a third-year resident from an osteopathically accredited FM residency in Florida. The recipient does not necessarily have to be the chief resident or someone who is planning to enter an academic career.
2. The resident must be nominated by the residency program director at an osteopathic family medicine residency program. Only one nominee from each program may be submitted for consideration.
3. The award will recognize a resident who has demonstrated exceptional skills and interests in teaching, as defined in the criteria below.
4. One award will be presented at the FSACOFPP convention on August 2nd, 2019 at the FSACOFPP Membership Luncheon.

The following criteria are suggested for selection of the recipient, where applicable:

- Demonstrated interest in teaching/precepting medical students.
- Participation in a patient education or residency education committee.
- Peer teaching.
- Consistent quality grand rounds and/or conferences presented.
- Valued as teacher by patients and peers.
- Evidence of community teaching.
- Presentations given at regional or national family medicine meetings.
