

2019 FSACOFP

Educator of the Year Award

Established in 2006, the FSACOFP Educator of the Year Award is selected by the Board of Trustees to honor an individual who has significantly enhanced the academic credibility of osteopathic family medicine in the state of Florida by a sustained, long-term commitment to osteopathic family medicine in academic settings.

Criteria:

Direct personal contributions to:

1. The FSACOFP
2. Affiliated OPTI
3. Organizations relating to osteopathic family medicine, such as the AOA, AODME, ACOFP, NBOME, etc;
4. An osteopathic medical school(s) or residency program(s);
5. A sustained, long-term commitment to osteopathic family medicine in an academic setting.

To nominate someone, please submit the attached form with a brief letter of nomination and CV of the nominee by June 20th to the FSACOFP.

Nominee Name _____

Nominee Email _____ Phone # _____

Nominator _____

Nominator Email _____ Phone # _____

Affiliation with the Nominee _____